

JOHN JAY INSTITUTE

Saratoga Fellows Program

The John Jay Institute in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is offering a post-graduate fellowship opportunity for junior officers in the Armed Forces of the United States. The Saratoga Fellows Program involves a 6-week long academic residency from June 6 to July 18, 2015. Themes related to American leadership will be explored through an interdisciplinary curriculum of history, philosophy, religion, ethics, and politics as well as site visits to various historical landmarks including: Independence National Park, Washington's Crossing, Valley Forge National Park, and Gettysburg National Battlefield. Fellowship awards include tuition costs and housing for the term.
